

Two-night stay at Framar Cottage, Ohakune for up to 4 people

Ohakune is a small town at the southern end of Tongariro National Park, close to the Turoa ski fields on the southern slopes of Mount Ruapehu.

Framar Cottage is located 150m from the Carrot Park and Johnny Nations Famous Chocolate Eclair shop. If the snow is not your thing, then there are plenty of summer walks and rides close by including the Old Coach Road. Snow gear and bikes, including electric bikes, are available for hire in Ohakune. There are a number of cafés in the town and up at the Junction. Plenty of coffee options.

Dates of stay to be organised with owners and completed within 6 months subject to availability. Holiday weekends excluded. Conditions of use will be advised at time of booking confirmation.
